Rework of TA-1 Transmitter Adapter

ENG 7-298

1. The prototype Transmitter Adapter TA-1 has been reworked in accordance with your memo 56-596 dated 22 October 1956. The modifications required have been accomplished without an increase in size or weight.

2. The Equipment Handbook has been revised to include the necessary changes. One copy of the Handbook is attached. Additional copies await the completion of photographs and will be forwarded in approximately two weeks.

3. The drawing numbers of all parts made in the R&D Laboratory are noted in the parts list. However, the drawings have not been included in the Equipment Handbook. If complete engineering drawings are required they can be furnished upon request.
